Dear Sisters and Brothers Christ,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our loving God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Lent is a season in which we seek to refocus ourselves on God. Often, I think, a big part of that is wanting God to somehow make himself and his mission for us clearer. Too often, I'm afraid, we come away from the process frustrated, because God hasn't met our expectations—we're still confused about where God means to take us and what God would have us do. . . .

When the brilliant ethicist John Kavanaugh went to work for three months at "the house of the dying" in Calcutta, he was seeking a clear answer as to how best to spend the rest of his life. On the first morning there he met Mother Teresa. She asked, "And what can I do for you?"

Kavanaugh asked her to pray for him. "What do you want me to pray for?" she asked.

He voiced the request that he had borne thousands of miles from the United States: "Pray that I have clarity."

She said firmly, "No, I will not do that."

When he asked her why, she said, "Clarity is the last thing you are clinging to and must let go of."

When Kavanaugh commented that she always seemed to have the clarity he longed for, she laughed and said, "I have never had clarity; what I have always had is trust. So I will pray that you trust God."

Brennan Manning, Ruthless Trust (HarperCollins, 2000)

My prayer for this Lenten Season is not a prayer for clarity for you or for me. Rather, it is a prayer that, despite the confusion of living in a fallen world, we might always cling to the wisdom of implicitly trusting God. And, that we might have the courage and the fortitude to allow the Holy Spirit to lead us into and through the fray.

Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

[Matthew 28:18-20]

Yours in Christ,

Randy Whitehead

Pastor, New Life and Little Bethany Lutheran Churches

New Life Lutheran Church
Unapproved Minutes
February 12, 2020

New Life Lutheran Church Council met at 6:30 p.m. on February 12, 2020 at NLLC in Rothsay, MN. Present were: Mike Heidecker, Jessi Christ, John Reber, Diane Kunze, Lorin Hansen, Randy Whitehead, Patrice Ziegler, and Renae Frosliie.

The meeting opened with devotions from John

- 1.0 Diane made a motion to approve the amended agenda, John seconded it, motion carried.
- 2.0 John made a motion to approve the minutes as amended from January 2020, Jessi seconded it, motion carried.
- 3.0 John made a motion to approve the treasurer's report, Diane seconded it, motion carried.

4.0 Ongoing Business

- 4.1 Technology update – No report
- 4.2 Updated Custodial Job Description
Mike presented and discussed the description with Tolly. Randy and Tolly discussed the
- 4.3 Need for new vacuums, the current ones the church owns are wearing out. Randy and Tolly are to discuss and purchase new ones.
- 4.4 Stewardship Campaign
30 pledges have been handed in totaling roughly $64,000.00 for the year.
- 4.5 2020 Council Devotional Schedule Sign up
Present Council members chose the months they prefer.

5.0 New Business

- 5.1 New Council Member Introduction – N/A
- 5.2 Correspondence:
Prom donation request was given to Foundation. Lightspeed Electric, estimate for changing current fluorescent lights to LED with Ottertail Power Rebate. Mike is going to contact Robbie to get a new estimate for only changing the Fellowship hall and Heritage room.
- 5.3 Upcoming Events:
February 26th – Ash Wednesday. Randy discussed having a potter come to demonstrate making bowls during the meal.
March 25th – Council Lenten Supper. Going to brainstorm meal ideas and discuss during the March meeting.
April 5th – 11th - Holy week. Discuss at a later meeting
April 12th - Easter. Discuss at a later meeting.
April 19th - Confirmation. There are enough gowns for confirmation students.
First communion – Current date set for April 5th, but may need to be changed to suit the needs of families inquiring.
- 5.4 Gluten Free Wafers:
Randy would like to move to all Gluten-free wafers to accommodate for people who have celiac disease and make them feel comfortable taking communion. He would like to make this transition entirely on/before Easter. Any unused wafers can be used for home visits.
- 5.5 Lenten Supper
Free will offering for Lent will be divided and donated to World Hunger and split between 4 local food shelves. John made the motion to approve the donations, Diane seconded, motion carried.
There was also discussion to have congregation members bring non-perishable food items during lent services to donate to food shelves.

6.0 Pastors Report

Randy would like to put together a local Fire Department & Police officer appreciation event. This would entail inviting them to a worship service and have a meal following. Possible day is May 3rd to be able to grill. To discuss further, whether the meal will be provided by council members or a potluck event.

Memorial wish list - to get new furniture for the Heritage room to make it a more comfortable place for members to relax and visit or meet. Mike recommended seeing if someone would be willing to decorate the space.

Confirmation retreat dates may be moved to the following weekend due to conflicts with some schedules. They will be studying the Gospel of Mark, Randy has made an obstacle course with the snow in his yard, and also has made a snow volleyball area.

Randy was wondering if there was a certain budget the council had in mind for the Lenten services. Funds would most likely come out of the worship & music $300

7.0 Youth Report – No Report

8.0 Office Managers Report

There was an error with some of the giving statements on January 13, 2019; Patrice found and fixed the error and has printed new statements for those who have asked for them.

Corey Knott from Church Mutual came in and took pictures and measurements to give us a quote for insurance.

Pastor Randy and Patrice have been discussing cutting back the newsletter to cut down toner costs. The current solution is to leave the back of each cover blank, unless there are more announcements to be added.

Amended WELCA Financial report was brought in and dropped off to the office.

We are out of baptismal medallions and confirmation crosses. Patrice presented a couple of options to the council. Mike suggested just having a couple of items on hand, Randy said he could always go to Melbergs to find something when we need them. Randy has plans for a couple of cross ideas for confirmation and was going to discuss the possibility of Arne Moen making them.

March council meeting time is moving to 7:30 to accommodate for Lent services.

Patrice would like to discuss budget ideas for the bulletin and newsletters so that the congregation can know where we are at monthly. Council decided she could use her creativity to figure out the best way to get the information to members.

9.0 WELCA

Arne Moen's letter to the council was read. The council is considering pushing back the Annual meeting so that all reports can be part of the Annual report. Patrice is to add council members phone numbers and committee members email addresses to the bulletin and/or newsletters quarterly. Diane made a motion to add the Amended WELCA report to the Annual report on file, Lorin seconded, motion carried.

10. NLLC Foundation report – N/A

11. Committee reports:

Worship & Music – They met before the council meeting and are discussing ways to freshen up worship with a brass band/choir and skits/puppet shows.

Education – N/A

Youth – N/A

Evangelism and Mission/Family Life and Social Concerns – N/A
Church Property – The bars in the women's restroom have been installed.

Stewardship – See 4.3 reports

Meeting closed at 7:40 with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully Submitted,

Patrice Ziegler

Applying Bible Principles

If you read annual reports from publicly held companies or banks, you will frequently see the word “fiduciary.” Fiduciary is used as an adjective to describe something which is held in trust. It is also used as a noun to describe the one who is a trustee who must account for that which is held in trust.

For example, a bank president has a fiduciary responsibility to stockholders in the bank and to depositors who place their money in the bank. A company treasurer has a fiduciary responsibility to the owners of the company. A payroll clerk has a fiduciary responsibility to pay people what they have earned.

You may never have considered yourself a fiduciary, and you may never have acted officially in a fiduciary capacity, but in reality, you are a fiduciary. All of us are. That applies both to Christians and to those who are not part of God’s family through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. We who are Christians will stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ. There, we will not be judged for salvation, since the penalty and judgment for sin was settled once and for all on the cross of Calvary when the Lord Jesus paid the price for our sin. Instead, when we stand before Christ, we will give an account of how we have used what God has entrusted to us.

Just as a bank president must account to stockholders and depositors on how their funds are used, we must account to Christ for how we have used what God has entrusted to us. Since everything we have rightfully belongs to him, we will need to report on how we have managed his assets!

As you consider how you have used what God has entrusted to your care and keeping during the past few months, what kind of job have you done? And more importantly, as a “fiduciary” of what God has placed in your hands, will you stand before him with joy, eager to report on your giving and management of his assets?
