Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Grace to you and peace in the name of God: the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit! Once again, Merry Christmas to each and all of you! I pray that as the new year dawns upon us, you might be found healthy and happy; and, that the year 2021 might be a great and wonder-filled year for you and yours.

As I was doing my morning devotions the other day, I was moved by a short snippet taken from Walter Wangerin, Jr.'s 1989 book The Manger Is Empty. I share it with you now because I think it is a great reminder, to us all, as to why our faith--woven into the story of Christ--is meant to be shared:

This, good parents, is the reason why you are telling your child the story, why you are weaving its marvelous world around her: because of love.

It isn't enough just to say it. That piece of knowledge fits like a stone in the pocket, but not in the heart. It is necessary that she should be loved, that she dwell within the light of that love, that love lift her up and take her to its breast, that she breathe love and laugh love and sleep in its sweet dominion—and so experience its security, its peace, and so believe in love.

This is not a matter of the intellect, that she should think about it.

This is a matter of the heart. It isn't explained. It happens.

This is not a lesson to be learned. This is an event. And Jesus, whose story it is, encounters your child when she enters his story.

But you, good parents and goodly grandparents—this is also the reason why you must tell the tale unto your children.

For between you and the child already is trust, and sympathy, and a common memory, and mercy and discipline together, and triumphs, and failures, and anger, and forgiveness. These are the threads of an active love. But when it is you who tell the story in your own voice unto your own child, these also become the delicate threads that define and shape the story, in her mind first, and then in her heart. They weave Jesus. Better yet, Jesus rides the weave; so human experience is elevated to heavenly experience. God becomes the truer, holier, brighter parent.

You tell the story to your child, then, in order to deliver your child to God, that God should adopt her and keep her forever and forever safe.

Because you love her, you see.

At times, this sharing the faith thing is hard, an uphill battle with our children, and we are tempted to just let it be, let it slide—and let them be. Some, perhaps most, do give in. We choose what seems to be the easier way. Ultimately, though, it is the harder way, to give in and let it slide, . . . harder for our children, . . . harder for us, . . . and harder for God.

Because we love our children, we continue to tell the story, not just with our words, but with our daily, love-filled, grace-filled actions.

I wish you all the very best for 2021 and beyond. Thank you for all that you do in service of Christ Jesus!

Take care and God bless! Yours in Christ,

Pastor Randy

New Life Lutheran Church Council met at 6:30 pm on December 9th, 2020 at NLLC in Rothsay MN and some virtually. Present were: Mike Heidecker, Jessi Christ, John Reber, Diane Kunze, Jessica Nelson, Steph Olson, Randy Whitehead, Renae Froslic, Patrice Ziegler, and Gayla Western. The meeting opened with devotions from Jessica.

1.0 Approval of Agenda: John made a motion to approve the amended agenda with a few additions, Jessica seconded it, motion carried.

2.0 Approval of October 2020 Council Minutes: Joyce made a motion to approve, Steph seconded it, motion carried.

3.0 Treasurers Report: Steph made a motion to approve the October treasurer's report, Jessi seconded, motion carried. Joyce made a motion to approve the November treasurers report, Steph seconded, motion carried.

4.0 Ongoing Business

4.1 Constitutional update: The constitution has been updated and is ready to present at the annual meeting. Additional items to look at is the size of committees. For example, the Evangelism & Mission committee has 6 members and only 4 active members, we will look at making a motion to change the size to 4 members at the annual meeting.

4.2 Smart Team update: The SMART team met in November along with service group leaders. It was decided at that time with the large amount of positive cases it was best to postpone opening until cases were on the decline. The team also purchased a sanitizing station to be used as people enter the building. The team will meet and regroup once cases start to decline to set an opening date for indoor worship.

4.3 Technology update: Purchased a new laptop for the office manager and looking at purchasing a docking station for the laptop. John brought up the possibility of having a tech committee added to the church, to be further discussed.

5.0 New Business

5.1 Correspondence: Ad for Christmas services with the Barnesville Record Review, the council decided to decline.

5.2 Upcoming events:

Dec. 24th - Christmas Eve see 6.0

Dec. 24th - Christmas Day see 6.0

5.3 Annual meeting: If the church is not yet open there was discussion of having the meeting online or in the parking lot with a mailer sent out prior to the meeting. January council meeting will be held sooner to determine a date for the Annual meeting and what it will look like. The deadline for non-financial reports is January 13, 2021 with the deadline for financial reports January 15, 2021.

5.4 Microsoft office subscription: John recommends the purchase of Microsoft office for the church. The subscription costs $99/year for 5 computers with the latest version of office. Mike suggested talking to Chad or Sheila Sogge about the purchase. Diane made a motion to purchase the software, Joyce seconded, motion carried.

6.0 Pastor's report: Pastor Randy gave us a handout and highlighted a couple items. He has been planning and preparing for an outdoor worship for Christmas eve. One service at 3:45pm and a second at 5:00 pm. He had 2 baptisms in November and another coming up in December, with hopes of planning a special event service this summer to recognize those that were baptized during this time. Pastor Randy is looking ahead at the Lenten season and beginning to plan and prepare. A huge thank you to John Reber for all of the different things he has been doing and volunteering his time at the church. Randy will be taking vacation December 25th - January 2nd.

7.0 Youth Director's report: Jessica held a "chopped" zoom and had 4 kids show up, it was a lot of fun and the kids were very creative. The turkey trot brought in 179 lbs. of food, very grateful for all of those who donated. The youth is having their Christmas event on December 20th. Jessica has been making Among us themed advent posts on the youth page as well as posting on the NLLC Facebook page daily for the Christmas season. She is asking the council to interact with those posts, it is helping boost our page "likes" and bringing in new people.

8.0 Office Manager's report: Patrice was out with COVID for 2 weeks and is slowly getting caught up on the work missed. There is 1 member that would like to discontinue their membership. Robbie & Traci Steiner along with their children have become new members to NLLC. Patrice has been having requests for bulletins mailed, the council agreed to continue the mailing of bulletins for those signed up. The new copy machine was installed on Dec. 10th and seems to be working well. She will post that there is no worship on December 27th on the NLLC Facebook page, the sign, and send it out on the app. Patrice will be taking time off January 5th thru the 7th.

9.0 WELCA: Quilters are having a quilt sale, asking anyone who wants to purchase one to stop by the church or make an appointment.

10.0 NLLC Foundation report: Foundation has approved $731 to the church to cover any expenses, approved the purchase of a computer for the office, approved the Sharefaith membership but suggesting making this a line item for the church in the future. Foundation also approved $1,000 for the SMART team to use for any items they may need to get us back to indoor worship.

11.0 Committee reports:

Worship & Music – They have been scheduling readers and continuing to work on sound system scheduling. Thank you to Heather Reber for all of her help.

Education – Hillary made Advent bags for Sunday school families to pick up in the entry area of the church. There was a brief discussion on the kids singing for Christmas eve but we aren't sure of how that would work.

Evangelism & Mission/Family Life & Social Concerns – The committee met and worked on coloring hearts so Patrice can get them ready to be mailed. The hearts will be sent out to Rothsay box holders.

Church Property – There are a few lights burnt out on the front of the building to look into getting fixed.

Stewardship – Discussion on sending out a letter for Christmas and New years with a pre-stamped envelope so members can mail in any donations they may want to make to the church.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:47pm with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully Submitted,
Patrice Ziegler

Annual meeting report due dates are quickly approaching! Deadline for reports is January 15th!

As you get your reports completed please email them to Patrice at newlife@rtelnet.net or drop off a copy in the office. I appreciate your timeliness.

Christmas Capers

We want to say a huge Thank You to everyone who graciously donated to our Christmas Caper event. In only a week and a half you managed to donate enough items to give 2 local children, 2 children in the surrounding area, and many more family's through Someplace safe in Fergus Falls a Merry Christmas.

We understand Christmas is not about the gifts but, it still feels great knowing that we were able to bring a smile to so many faces on Christmas morning.

CONFIRMATION FAMILIES

Confirmation classes will be held virtually until further notice. According to the Governors latest guidelines we are not able to gather and continue confirmation classes inside of the church building.

Steward Our Future Church

For clarifying our thoughts and helping us to reset priorities, there's nothing like a crisis – whether it's a job layoff, a death in the family, social upheaval or a health emergency.

With Covid-19 we've witnessed plenty of all of these, and more! Despite our natural resistance to change, we're learning new ways to live. As a disciple of Christ, what thoughts have clarified for you? As a follower of Jesus, what personal priorities have you reset?

The questions arise because you are the church, we are the church together and stewards of the church. We will pray the Holy Spirit will guide us to a "new normal" of holy living as both disciples and community that will be different – and better – than what we've known.

What might that look like? Here are some questions to pray over and discuss:

- When your church suspended in-person worship, what ways did you find to stay connected to God? To one another? What did this teach you about holy living? About being church together?
- Covid-19 forced us to "be church" without buildings. What has this revealed about the nature of community? About the value of buildings? As we go back into our buildings, how can things be different? Why must they be?
- In light of what we've learned, what values, ideas, traditions, habits should we let go of? Which should we keep? What really matters? And why?
- How can your insights, strengths and gifts help to shape the future of your life as a disciple and follower of Jesus? Of your congregation? What can you give to the future church in time, talent and treasure?

Covid-19's crises are still teaching us. As stewards of God's church, we can renew and restructure our church to fulfill God's mission. With God's guidance, we will.
