Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our loving God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Many years ago, back when I was in college, I met a professional law enforcement sketch artist who rendered drawings of potential suspects from eyewitness descriptions. I, myself was a witness in a case and was flown down to San Antonio, Texas, to meet with her and some federal agents investigating the case. I was nervous about the prospect of my describing the person accurately enough for her to make a proper drawing. She had anticipated this, so to reassure me, prior to the session where she was to sketch the person I was describing, she pulled out a three-ring binder. She then paged through this binder showing me and the federal agents present her sketches of potential suspects in various crimes. Beside the vast majority of those sketches, she had also posted a photo of the person who was eventually captured and convicted for the particular crime in question. As she said, the sketches seldom were perfect renderings of the persons in the mug shot photos, but almost always there were certain aspects in the drawings that helped lead to the identification of the suspects. As I looked at her sketches and the photos, I saw that she was right—and that knowledge eased my stress level considerably. I realized I didn't have to describe the person perfectly. All I had to do is describe him the best I could. The sketch artist did render a drawing that day.

A few years later, I happened to be watching an edition of "Sixty Minutes" and to my surprise, one of the segments was a profile of that sketch artist, and how her sketches were responsible for the capture of a huge number of suspects over the years!

I'm not sure what sparked this memory this week, but it did get me to thinking: if a witness were to describe me and my life to an artist, would his or her rendering reflect, at all, that I am a follower of Christ Jesus? Maybe that is a question we should all be asking ourselves on a regular basis? And what are those aspects that would convict us as being Christ's disciples?

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn. [Isaiah 61:1-2a]

Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' [Matthew 25:34-36]

[Jesus] said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." [Matthew 22:37-40]

On March 2, we enter the season of Lent—what a great time to ask just such questions and seek just such answers!

Take care and God bless!

Pastor Randy

According to Matthew, Jesus was preaching to 5,000 people and dusk was starting to set in, supper was long overdue, stomachs were starting to growl, and all there was to eat were two fish and five loaves of bread. The disciples were aware of the predicament. They said to Jesus, in effect, “This is a sticky situation, and we can’t do anything about it anyway. Let’s take what we have gathered and go away and eat!”

By nature there is some of that mentality in all of us. Whenever God places us in a situation that challenges us to use our time and talent, and to invest some of ourselves in finding a solution to someone’s problem or need, our first response is to remove ourselves from the problem.

Matthew was an eyewitness to the event. Can you imagine the joyful satisfaction ... the uplift in faith Matthew experienced when he was able to write, “But everyone ate, and there was more than enough. They gathered twelve baskets full of leftovers!”

Do you think there could be any symbolic significance to the fact that there were twelve baskets full? One for each disciple? Enough to satisfy their needs for days to come? And all because they trusted God and had the joy and satisfaction that comes with being a partner with Jesus? A partner in his ministry of love and service.

For that matter, some of the most tired, worn out at times, almost burnt out disciples at every church have become that way because they have a difficult time saying “no” when our Lord calls them to join hands with him in using their time and talent to serve their church. Tired? Yes! Weary? Yes! But then, you should be let in on a little secret: You should see their “baskets”!

The Lenten season is a gift of the Church to its members. The focus of Lent has always been repentance. And, repentance simply means turning back to God--our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. This year the theme of our midweek worship services for the New Life Lutheran and Little Bethany Lutheran congregations is: "There was Jesus" Our midweek services will feature some of our members sharing about some difficult or challenging or fruitful times in their lives, and how "Jesus was there" in the midst of them in various persons, places, things, experiences, or enlightenments.

Beginning on Ash Wednesday, March 2, we will have a simple supper in the New Life Fellowship Hall each Wednesday evening from 5:30-6:30 pm, followed by a worship service at 6:45 pm in the New Life sanctuary. We expect the services to run between 30 to 45 minutes. The suppers are provided by various groups. Any free will donations will be accepted in support of the various organizations, groups, or charities they are raising funds for. Thank you!

In addition to our midweek Lenten worship services, members of New Life's Evangelism, Family Life, and Social Concerns Committee have put together some Lenten Devotional Material packets to aid us in our Lenten journey. The packets are suitable for use by families, friends, and individuals during this season. The packets can be picked up at New Life Lutheran Church or Little Bethany Lutheran Church at any of the Wednesday or Sunday worship services, beginning March 2, 2022. The packets can also be picked up at New Life Lutheran Church during regular weekday working hours at the church, 10 am to 2:30 pm, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, beginning March 1. They are also available any time you see Pastor Randy's vehicle in the parking lot! Please stop in. For those unable to stop in, please give the office a call.
