Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Grace and peace to you in the name of God, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!

Peter Drucker, America's management guru, tells of a hospital administrator who held his first staff meeting. They worked through a rather difficult matter and the new boss felt the matter was settled. But then suddenly one of the staff asked, "Would this have satisfied Nurse Bryan?" The arguments immediately started all over again and did not stop until a better solution to the problem had been hammered out.

Who was this, Nurse Bryan? The administrator soon found out. She had been a long serving nurse in the hospital. Whenever a decision regarding patient care came up, Nurse Bryan would ask, "Are we doing the best we can to help this patient?" As a result of her conscientious concern, patients on her floor did better and recovered faster. Gradually as time went by, the whole hospital learned to adopt what became known as "Nurse Bryan's Rule."

Though she had retired ten years earlier, the standard she had set was still providing vision for employees in the hospital. Her secret? She took every aspect of hospital work back to the central question: "What can we do to best do our job as a hospital?"

In like fashion, the apostle Paul, set the standard for us, as followers of Christ. He wrote:

"If I speak in the tongues of humans and of angels but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions and if I hand over my body so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing."

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable; it keeps no record of wrongs; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things."

[1 Corinthians 13:1-7]

I seem to hear a lot of people, today, claim the title of Christian. That claim is a claim of vision as to what we can do best to make Christ and his mercy known in the world. But, I wonder, does the standard that the apostle Paul set before us more than 1,950 years ago still hold any sway?

To put it another way . . .

An artist, seeking to depict the meaning of evangelism, painted a storm at sea. Black clouds filled the sky. Illuminated by a flash of lightning, a little boat could be seen disintegrating under the pounding of the ocean. People were struggling in the swirling waters, their anguished faces crying out for help. The only glimmer of hope appeared in the foreground of the painting, where a large rock protruded out of the water. There, clutching desperately with both hands, was one lone seaman.

It was a moving scene. Looking at the painting, one could see in the tempest a symbol of humankind's hopeless condition. And, true to the Gospel, the only hope of salvation was "the Rock of Ages", a shelter in the time of storm. But as the artist reflected upon his work, he realized that the painting did not accurately portray his subject. So, he discarded the canvas and painted another. It was very similar to the first: the black clouds, the flashing lightning, the angry waters, the little boat crushed by the pounding waves, and the crew vainly struggling in the water. In the foreground the seaman was clutching the large rock for salvation. But the artist made one change: the survivor was holding on with only one hand, and with the other hand he was reaching down to pull up another person who was drowning. That, it seems to me, is the New Testament picture of witnessing - that hand reaching down to rescue the perishing. Until that hand is extended, there is no Gospel - and no hope for the world.

Take care and God bless!

Pastor Randy

New Life Lutheran Church

9.0 WELCA: Lena went well and will possibly be back next year. There will be a sign out sheet for anything coming and going from the building for anything WELCA. Quilt sale will continue twice a year for a one-month period. WELCA will also be giving the church $500 from the bake sale that was held during the meatball dinner.

10.0 NLLC Foundation report: option A for tech/sound as approved. Upcoming scholarship applications deadline is July 1st.

11.0 Committee reports:

Worship & Music (Jennifer): Seniors possibly performing at baccalaureate. Also, the team has been cleaning cabinets out around the building.

Education (Steph): 6/4-6/8 is vacation bible school. Food has been taken care of, suggested confirmands helping with vbs. Kids really enjoyed worship/music's help with the flower display on the last day of Sunday school.

Youth (Jessica): Final WOW happened and 3 stayed. Confirmation orientation happened, 2 nights for parents to attend with their youth (Wed after Labor Day and then in Jan). Last service event for 22/23 year is 5/17 cleaning two cemeteries.

Evangelism & Mission/Family Life & Social Concerns (Joyce): Senior recognition went well! Looking for donations for more care bags.

Church Property (Marlowe): Clean-up of the grounds will be happening. Continued work on the roof repair and still assessing water damage from the ice dam. Retaining wall is starting to sag and needs to be leveled.

Stewardship (Kevin): n/a

Respectfully submitted,

12.0 Adjournment: Next meeting will be June 14th at 6:30pm. The meeting adjourned at 7:53pm with the Lord's Prayer.

What is Your Standard?

You may want to make a gift to your parish, but wonder how large your gift should be. There's no right answer to the question, "How much should I give?"

Giving guidelines

The ancient principle of tithing sets an historic example. Centuries ago, ten percent of earnings was the standard. Looking at the changes in taxation, earnings, and living costs, some modern authorities have suggested even five percent is important. Thus, a couple earning $80,000 per year could consider a guideline between $4,000 and $8,000 in annual charitable gifts.

But every gift should come from the heart, not just the pocket. Asking how much, exactly, to give to those who need our help, is asking us to tell you what is in your heart.

Your church touches the lives of people and makes them better. It is a place where the work of Christ can continue. It is your link to the wisdom of the past and the promise of the future. That kind of meaning cannot be reduced to giving formulas and percentages. It requires a response from the heart.
